

Art in the Enchanted Valley

Art in the enchanted Valley

We have an enormous amount of artist, creators, and makers in our valley and region. The City of Young Harris is dedicated to promoting our gifted community

Places to find art

- Appalachian Gallery
- Brasstown Valley Resort
- Cables Fine Art
- Mountain Regional Library
- Peach State Credit Union
- Young Harris College Art Gallery
- Young Harris College Art Department

Barn Quilt Program

In 2020, the Young Harris Barn Quilt Project began when the City was accepted into the Georgia Placemaking Collaborative. This project recognizes the City's rich cultural heritage, along with the heritage of the Appalachian region. Those who reside in the 30582 and 30546 zip codes are encouraged to participate in the Barn Quilt Program. Review the Program details in the link below and complete the application, which can be dropped off at the Young Harris City Hall, or mailed to Young Harris City Hall, P.O. Box 122, Young Harris, GA, 30582.

Porchfest 2023

Artists, local craftspeople, and those who sell handmade items are encouraged to sell their creations on Sunday, September 17, 2023, from 1-5 pm at Porchfest, which will be a day of music, food, and fun! Please complete the vendor application and return by August 17, 2023, with a check. Also encouraged to join are food trucks, those who have hand grown items, and local non-profits that provide a community service. See application below for details, and email [roseroyston \[at\] cityofyoungharris.net](mailto:roseroyston@cityofyoungharris.net) (Rosemary Royston) if you have questions. See you there!

Barn Quilt Program and Application 8.29 MB

Porchfest 2023 Vendor Application 126.02 KB